Angelimar, son of Aglahad, was the nineteenth Prince in the second line of Lords of Dor-en-Ernil. He was the twentieth Man in direct descent from Galador, the founder of the House of Dol Amroth, and he ruled as Prince for 45 years from T.A. 2869 until T.A. 2921.

His son, Adrahil II, was the father of Inrahil and Finduilas. Like Aglahad before him, he was both wise and mighty, and trained his forces in preparation for the coming great war. In his time, the Corsairs of Umbar became servants of Sauron, and the monument of Ar-Pharazôn in Umbar was thrown down.
