Ar-Adûnakhôr was the twentieth King of Númenor, known as the first Númenórean king to take his official name in the Adûnaic tongue - instead of using the traditional Quenya form - as Tar-Herunûmen.

As an opponent of the Valar, Ar-Adûnakhôr's Quenya name was recorded in the official royal scrolls only. The name he chose was considered by some as blasphemous in both languages, as it means "Lord of the West", a title reserved for Manwë, King of the Valar. During his time, the Elven-tongues were no longer used or taught to children, and the ships from Tol Eressëa came rarely. Only those of The Faithful maintained the ancient customs of friendship with the west and welcomed the Eldar, both in secret.
