Arantar (Q. "High-king") was the fifth King of Arnor. He ruled from T.A. 339 until T.A. 435. His father was Eldacar. He was married to Mîrëtarî, a Dúnadan noblewoman, who bore him one son, who ruled as Tarcil.

Arantar was known to have preferred a relatively simple and modest life for himself, while he indulged his wife with luxuries and beautiful art.

Although Arantar and Mîrëtarî had devised luxurious tombs in Annúminas, unknown to most their bodies had actually secretly been buried in the Barrow-downs.
