Tar-Anárion was the eighth Ruler of Númenór. He was the son of Tar-Ancalime and Hallacar of Hyarastorni. He became the king of Numenor in 1280, after the abdication of his mother and ruled for 114 years. He had two daughters - Alcarinë and Aranís. Therefore he was succeeded by his son, Tar-Súrion.

Little is said about Tar-Anárion's rule. His two eldest children were female, but both refused to be heirs to the throne for unknown reasons, and they disliked and feared Ancalimë, who would in revenge not allow them to marry.
